 Choose Godparents

Selecting Godparents: Godparents play a very important role in your child's spiritual life as role models of the faith. The child should be able to look to their Godparent as an example of how the church teaches us to live our Catholic faith. They should also support you, the parents, with the important task of raising your child in the faith. Being a Godparent is not only an honor, it is a tremendous responsibility. Therefore, the Godparents should be carefully chosen. In recognizing the importance of this role, the Church has provided guidelines to help parents choose the best possible Godparents for their children. Corpus Christi Parish strictly adheres to Canon Law in all aspects of Baptism. If potential Godparents are not practicing members of the church or have converted from the Catholic faith to any other faith, they should not be considered and will not be accepted.

The Church requirements for Roman Catholic Godparents are:

- A child must have one practicing Roman Catholic Godparent in good standing with the Church. They should be attending Mass on a regular basis and participating in the life of the parish.
- This Catholic Godparent must be at least 16 years old and be mature enough to understand, accept and carry out the duties of a godparent. A Godparent must have received the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation. If they are married they need to have been married in the Catholic Church.
- A Godparent must be living an exemplary life consistent with faith and morals as taught by the Roman Catholic Church.
- A non-Catholic, baptized Christian may be chosen as a Christian Witness, as long as one Godparent is Catholic.
- If two Godparents are chosen, they may not be of the same gender.
- There may be no more than two Godparents.
- If both Godparents are Catholic, both must meet all the criteria above.

Secure Godparent Certificates

This is a letter from the Godparent's church signifying that they are practicing members of the church in good standing and therefore they are fit to be a Catholic Godparent. Godparent certificates must be received by our parish office before a Baptism can be scheduled.

They can be mailed to:
